

“Bob Burnsworth is so worthy of the Golden Rule Award. His commitment to his clients and his community is an example to so many. Bob leads a faith-driven life and career wherein countless hours are spent giving back in a selfless manner to colleagues, organizations and communities. Congratulations Bob, this recognition is very well-deserved!”

-Patrick Maloblocki, Coldwell Banker Real Estate Group

14,000 meals per year.

- He helped start the sports program at Turnstone and served as a coach for its wheelchair basketball team which, in 2014, ranked 13 in the nation out of 88 teams.
- He coaches a girls' basketball team for the Parkview Huntington YMCA KIM League.
- He has served as a counselor at the Summer Muscular Dystrophy Camp
- He was instrumental in raising awareness about the challenges faced by residents when using a wheelchair or walker in downtown Huntington.

REALTOR, Coach, Organizer, Director and Volunteer. It is our honor to recognize Bob Burnsworth of Coldwell Banker Real Estate Group as this month's Golden Rule Award recipient.

For nearly 25 years, Bob has dedicated his time to serving the needs of others by helping them reach their potential despite challenges. No single award or write-up could properly represent his list of accomplishments in community service and his impact on others. His actions continue to uplift those in need and those who bear witness to them.

- He served as a board member of a local service agency dedicated to helping the needs of others.
- He was instrumental in starting a food ministry which now serves over

The list continues! For these accomplishments, he received UPSTAR's 2016 Outstanding Service Award. Additionally, he has received the Ed Owen Coach of the Year Award from the National Wheelchair Basketball Association in 2014 and the Herbert D. LaMont Award in 2015.

As we navigate challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, Bob's commitment to ensuring food security continues to help a growing number of families in need. New Life Meal Ministry now serves around 80 carry-out meals per day, according to The Huntington County TAB. Before the pandemic, this number was closer to 50.

Thank you for all you do, Bob! This association is proud to have you as a member.

We want your nominations! Every month, we will honor a real estate professional with the Golden Rule Award. Each recipient is then nominated for a year-end award presented in December.

Bob Volunteering at a Dog Adoption Event (courtesy of Coldwell Banker Holloway)